Park & Recreation Grants

The Franconia Township Parks and Recreation Board recently put two grant awards to use at the Community Park. You may have noticed a few changes to the area. The most noticeable change is the updated playground equipment that was added to the main play area located on the Allentown Road side of the park. The new unit, complete with two slides and other play equipment was completed in October of 2010. The equipment was purchased with a combination of Township funds and grant funds. The grant was awarded through the GameTime Grant Program. The Franconia Township Public Works Department installed the unit.

The second grant was received through the Department of Community and Economic Development and Robert W. Godshall's Office. The single assistance grant awarded to the Township went toward the purchase and installation of a new fence around the main softball field at the Community Park. The field was closed during the fall and winter to complete this project. The project is complete and the fields will be available for use this season. 🌹

Township Recognized for Efforts in Farmland Preservation

Franconia Township has received recognition for its effort in farmland preservation. At the February 22nd, 2011 Regular Meeting of the Franconia Township Board of Supervisors, Elizabeth Emlen of the Montgomery County Planning Commission presented the Board with a plaque and citation congratulating and commending the group and Township for their involvement and success with the program. To date, there are approximately 760 acres of preserved farmland throughout the Township. Both local and county dollars have been used to purchase the development rights of these property owners. The farms remain active farms and a visual reminder of the agricultural heritage of Franconia Township. Chairman, Steven P. Barndt, accepted the citation on behalf of Franconia Township. 🌹

Stormwater & You Too!

Much has been happening on the Stormwater Management Front as the Federal and State Governments continue their dialogue to enhance Stormwater Management, not just in Pennsylvania, but across the nation. Since the Fall Frank-Talk, in which we reported on the DEP and the EPA discussions, they have again extended the current Stormwater Permit protocol, known as PAG-13 that the township is required to observe. Although it is now extended until March of 2012, seemingly a long way off, much will need to be accomplished once the promised new, and much more stringent, runoff rules are finally published.

These new rules continue to be in negotiation between the EPA and DEP which is the reason for the now third delay. Once published in the PA Bulletin, it would start the compliance schedule for the township including the adoption of new Stormwater Management Ordinances and comprehensive Stormwater Management Plans for mitigation of excess sediments entering the Skippack, Indian Creek and Neshaminy in accordance with their approved TMDLs (Total Maximum Daily Load – A Federal Standard for each impaired watershed under the Clean Water Act). Some of the differences in approach between the two agencies can be seen in the recently enacted Chesapeake Bay TMDL where

PA has been taken to task by the EPA in how non-point source storm water flows, that is runoff from farms, golf courses, school campus and commercial properties and other land uses, where runoff does not enter into a municipal Stormwater Separate Stormwater System to be treated. In the Chesapeake Bay the EPA has imposed a penalty to be assessed again municipalities as a punishment towards their perception of Pennsylvania's Program being inadequate, a point being vigorously debated by the DEP, and also subject of a suit against the EPA by the Farm Bureau, a voluntary organization of Farmers that are also much affected by that TMLD, as are the many Municipal Separate Stormwater System permit holders (MS4s).

Stay tuned to Franc-Talk as we continue to report on what will eventually be required of us all to better improve our Stormwater Management, not just the physical improvements, but also the extensive reporting and monitoring programs that the Federal Program will require. Each and every township landowner will be impacted to some extent and each will be asked to support the Township's efforts to be in full compliance with what is being mandated. As we have noted before in Franc-Talk the 'YOU TOO' comes in is the recognition that this program is not just about the organized local representatives of your township, the PA Stormwater Coalition and other representatives working to improve the program for an efficient and cost effective results, it is also about how YOU TOO manage your own small part of storm water runoff through your own day to day activities. Working together, individual residents, the business community, our farmers and Franconia Township, are being called upon to do much to improve our watershed environment. Visit the Township's Website for links to learn more on what you can do! 🌱

The following is a list of scheduled road projects for the upcoming season.

Franconia Sewer Authority Update

RATE CHANGE: The Board of Franconia Sewer Authority (FSA) voted to increase the quarterly sewer rate to $125 for residential customers, with an equivalent rate increase for commercial, industrial, and institutional customers. The reason for our rate increase is in response to rate increases we are charged by the treatment facilities that we use. This increase will be seen in your April billing.

CREDIT CARDS ACCEPTED: After receiving numerous requests from residents Franconia Sewer Authority (FSA) will begin accepting credit cards for payment of quarterly sewer bills. When the system is ready for use there will be instructions and a link on the FSA website – www.franconiasewer.org. A computer terminal is being set up at the Township building for those customers desiring to pay their bill with a credit card but who have no access to a computer. FSA is using a third party to manage credit card payments. They will collect a convenience charge from customers using a credit card (about $3.00) for each transaction.

SKIPPACK TREATMENT PLANT:

The new treatment plant on the Skippack Creek is going through its final shakedown and should be operational by the time you read this article. This new facility is truly state-of-the-art, using membrane filtration to remove micronutrients and ultraviolet light for disinfection. It is designed to treat up to 250,000 gallons per day, and will service the Lower Skippack Basin of Franconia Township.

Construction Updates

The final unit of the Earlington Sewer District is under construction on Allentown Road near Green Hill Road. This will be a shared facility with North Penn Water Authority (NPWA). The building will house a booster station for NPWA, and electric controls for FSA's Earlington pump station. The bulk of the FSA facilities are located outside the building and in the ground. Some prepaid residents have been invited to connect already. Those not prepaid will be receiving their connection notice when the pump station is complete (by the end of April).

The Township has advertised the revised 537 Plan for the Lower Skippack Basin. Following final approval FSA will begin work on the interceptor that will provide sewer service to residents on Allentown, Delp, and Halteman Roads.

All of the permits and easements are now in place for Godshall Road near Reliance. This system will be completed as soon as the weather breaks. Thanks to everyone for their patience.

The Morwood Area sewers are being engineered at this time. Preliminary drawings have been developed and are undergoing review. When the documentation is complete our engineer will put together a 537 Plan update for the Morwood area. It will be advertised and then be sent to PADEP for approval. Timing on construction is probably still at least two years out. If you are having a problem with your on-lot system in the meantime, contact FSA to see if there is anything we can do to help. 🌱
