Pennsylvania Turnpike to Close Schoolhouse Road Next Week for Bridge Construction in Franconia Township

May 9, 2020 –The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission is planning to close Schoolhouse Road between Kulp Road and Halteman Road in Franconia Township, Montgomery County on Monday, May 11, through Friday, May 15, from 7:00 AM to 3:00 PM, for bridge construction, the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) announced today.

During the closure, motorists will be directed to use Wambold Road, Allentown Road and Route 113 (Harleysville Pike).

Motorists are advised to allow extra time when traveling near the work zone because backups and delays will occur. All scheduled activities are weather dependent.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission will complete this project under a PennDOT Highway Occupancy Permit.

The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission is widening and reconstructing seven miles of the Northeast Extension between Milepost A31 and A38, situated between the Lansdale (Exit 31) and Quakertown (Exit 44) interchanges in Montgomery County.
